Payment to the AFM will serve as acknowledgment that all employees and other representatives of the company ("Company"), and its invitees attending the AFM agree to be bound by all rules, AFM Guidelines, regulations and written instructions of the AFM (sometimes collectively and individually referred to as the "Market Rules") available at http://www.ifta-online.org/afm/abt_guidelines.asp.

If application is faxed, please do not send original by mail. This may cause duplicate charges. See AFM Guidelines for further details.

By completing the Registration Application and making payments due hereunder, the registrant ("Participant") agrees, for his/her company ("Company") and its invitees attending the AFM, to abide by and be bound by all rules, AFM Guidelines, regulations and written instructions (sometimes collectively and individually referred to as the "Market Rules" and listed here and at www.ifta-online.org/afm/guidelines.asp), of the AFM, and in particular the following:

Notice to Participants

The American Film Market ("AFM") is owned and operated by the Independent Film & Television Alliance ("IFTA"), a non-profit trade association registered in the State of California. IFTA is not responsible for the activities, performance or failure to perform of any of its Member companies, Exhibitors, Buyers, Industry Attendees, Sponsors, Affiliates or any other party who may participate at the AFM or who may otherwise utilize the facilities or services of the AFM or IFTA (the "Participant" or "Participants"); nor are they liable for the actions, inactions or negligence of suppliers, utilities, vendors, screening theaters, hotels, transportation and other facilities and/or parties; nor for force majeure events including without limitation, strikes, work stoppage, war or military activities, civil disorders, criminal conduct of others, weather, fire, earthquakes, acts of God or other events beyond IFTA's control. All AFM Participants shall indemnify and hold harmless IFTA, its Members, officers, directors, employees and agents of each of the foregoing from and against any and all claims, damages and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees) relating to or arising out of any breach or alleged breach of their agreements or alleged agreements with third parties.

All Participants shall be responsible for their costs and fees associated with participating in the AFM, including but not limited to, all fees associated with Exhibitor, Buyer, and Industry Attendee registration and participation, Sponsorships, screening fees, costs associated with any type of badges, equipment and furniture rental fees, and any other costs or fees assessed in association with participating at the AFM. All Participants shall indemnify and hold harmless IFTA, its Members, officers, directors, employees and agents of each of the foregoing from and against any and all claims, damages and liabilities (including reasonable attorney's fees) relating to or arising out of any request by a Participant for IFTA's assistance with Participant's personal property or rented equipment, including transporting such property or equipment.

Each participant expressly consents to receive via facsimile, e-mail or any other means, information or materials from the AFM, IFTA or the IFTA Foundation. Participant may withdraw this consent at any time by notifying IFTA in writing.

Maintaining the Integrity of the AFM

IFTA has developed guidelines as well as other rules, regulations and written instructions, such as the AFM Guidelines, (sometimes collectively and individually referred to as the "AFM Market Rules") for all Participants. Each Participant and all of its employees, agents, consultants and guests, shall abide and be legally bound by the AFM Market Rules. Failure to do so may result in revocation of previously granted badges and/or prohibition of the Participant and/or its employees, agents, consultants and guests from participating at future AFM(s). As the owner and operator of the AFM, IFTA has the right in its sole discretion to apply and interpret the AFM Market Rules. In the event of such revocation, IFTA shall have the absolute right to prohibit entry to the AFM, including Exhibitor's exhibition space. Also, in such event, the Participant shall not be entitled to a refund or rebate of any fees previously paid to the AFM or to IFTA, nor shall IFTA be responsible in any way for any of the costs which the Participant may have incurred in connection with, preparation for, or attendance at the AFM.

IFTA reserves the right to revoke previously granted badges and/or prohibit a company, its Affiliates, all its employees, and/or an individual from participating in a current or future AFM(s) for, including but not limited to, the following reasons: (1) Participants who breach the safety and security of the AFM, which includes, but is not limited to, threats to other Participants, AFM staff, Loews Santa Monica Beach Hotel and/or Le Merigot Hotel ("Hotel") staff, or any Person whatsoever, carrying of weapons, or violations of general security concerns at the AFM; (2) Participants who have been convicted of criminal copyright infringements; (3) Participants who have infringed the intellectual property rights of IFTA or the AFM, including but not limited to, unauthorized use of IFTA's registered trademarks or copyrights; (4) Participants who violate any Terms of Use found on the IFTA or AFM websites; (5) Participants who have outstanding unpaid invoices from a prior AFM(s); (6) Participants who have been barred pursuant to Section B. below; (7) Participants who do business on behalf of Non-Prevailing Parties and/or Related Entities that have been barred pursuant to Section B. below; and/or (8) Any other act which IFTA determines, in its sole discretion, may compromise the integrity of the AFM.

Any communication sent by Participants within the U.S. with respect to the AFM shall be in compliance with the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003 (Controlling the Assault of Non-Solicited Pornography and Marketing Act).

Exhibitor Badge Eligibility and Restrictions

Exhibitors may provide badges to business colleagues, including employees, consultants, producers, etc. Exhibitors that are Accredited AFM Buyers may request a Buyer Badge for any full-time employee. However, Exhibitors may not provide badges to Buyers from other companies. In such instances, the Exhibitor's badges may be revoked and the Exhibitor may be prohibited from attending future AFMs. Exhibitors with a National Umbrella Program may provide badges to full-time employees only.

Badges

Badges must be worn at all times for the duration of the AFM. AFM Security will prevent individuals without an AFM Badge from gaining access to the Exhibitor floors. An AFM Badge allows access to most screenings but does not guarantee access to every screening. If any Participant wears a badge other than his or her own, AFM Security will confiscate the badge. Confiscated badges will not be returned. Fines or other sanctions may be imposed.

No AFM Badge is required for children in strollers who are accompanied by an adult Participant who has his or her own AFM Badge. Participants under the age of fifteen (15) years old will be provided with a complimentary AFM Badge and must be accompanied at all times by an adult Participant who has his or her own AFM Badge. Participants sixteen (16) years old and older must purchase an AFM Industry Attendee Badge.

Only employees of an Accredited Buyer are able to purchase a Buyer Badge for that Accredited Buyer.

Lost or stolen Photo Badges must be reported to AFM Security and there may be a 24-hour waiting period before a new badge is issued. IFTA reserves the right to not issue a replacement badge. There are no replacements for Day Badges or Visitor Badges.

Any Person found to have produced, distributed, authorized or in any other way participated in the use of counterfeit badges will be subject to fines or other sanctions, including prohibiting such company, its Affiliates, all its employees, and/or an individual from participating in a current or future AFM(s).

Temporary Office Space

A Participant, with or without an AFM office, may not retain temporary office space (one month or less) in the City of Santa Monica. IFTA reserves the right to rescind all rights and privileges of participation and/or exhibition at this and future AFM(s) in the event of such occurrence.

Promotional Material

Promotional materials may not be handed out or left in the Hotel hallways, elevator lobbies, bathrooms, or anywhere on Hotel property. All such materials will be confiscated and/or removed by AFM Security.

Promotional materials may not be left unattended at the AFM screening facilities. Promotional materials may be distributed inside the theater during an Exhibitor's screening only.

Exhibitor may not distribute from its office(s) any publication from any company not participating as an AFM Exhibitor, Sponsor or Affiliate.

Buyer Accreditation

Each participant attending the AFM as a Buyer must be pre-qualified as an Accredited Buyer and be an employee of a company which had contracted with one (1) or more IFTA Members for such company to actually distribute in at least one (1) audio-visual medium a total of at least three (3) motion pictures during the three (3) years immediately before the AFM; or be an employee of a company which has contracted with one (1) or more IFTA Members for such company to actually sub-distribute (i.e. re-license) in at least one (1) audio-visual medium a total of at least three (3) motion pictures during the three (3) years immediately before the AFM.

Buyer Accreditation will not take place during the AFM. To apply for accreditation, the Accreditation Form, available at www.americanfilmmarket.com, must be submitted no later than one (1) month prior to the first day of the AFM.

If a company attends the AFM using a Full Market Industry Badge and submits the Accreditation Form within thirty (30) days of the AFM and qualifies as a Buyer under these Guidelines, the company may request a refund for the difference between the amount paid for the Full Market Industry Attendee Badge and the cost of the Buyer Badge.

Only employees of an Accredited Buyer are able to purchase a Buyer Badge for that Accredited Buyer.
