The Independent Film & Television Alliance® (IFTA®) is the global trade association of the independent motion picture and television industry and the voice and advocate for the Independents worldwide. Representing more than 125 companies in 20 countries, IFTA's Members are the world's foremost independent production and distribution companies, sales agents, and institutions engaged in film finance. For more than 35 years, IFTA Members have produced, financed or distributed many of the world's most prominent films, 22 of which have won the Academy Award® for "Best Picture".

The Alliance actively lobbies U.S. and international government officials on critical matters directly affecting independents and their business, aggressively working to solidify solutions for the independent sector. IFTA's annual event, the American Film Market (AFM), is the world's largest motion picture trade event taking place every November in Santa Monica and attracting 7,000+ industry attendees from more than 70 countries.
