Edward S. Labowitz

Ed Labowitz, is a partner in the law firm of Alexander, Lawrence, Frumes & Labowitz, LLP. He is a graduate of The Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs of Princeton University, and he received his J.D. from Boalt Hall School of Law of the University of California at Berkeley. Ed started his career as a litigator at Loeb & Loeb, after which he was assistant counsel and then Vice President, Business Affairs of the production and distribution operations of Filmways Television. Later, he was Vice President of Business and Legal Affairs for PolyGram Pictures US; and then Vice President, Business Affairs of ABC Motion Pictures. From to joining this firm, Ed was also a partner at Gipson, Hoffman & Pancione and was co-chair of the global entertainment group of the international law firm, Coudert Brothers, LLP.

Ed's clients have included entertainment companies from the United States and over 25 countries. He has advised clients in such areas as co-production and film financing; film library acquisitions; television network, production and syndication agreements; domestic and foreign independent and studio distribution arrangements; animation production and distribution; copyright matters; theatrical stage productions; the creation and licensing activities of domestic and foreign cable and satellite television networks and platforms; website establishment and distribution; and book publishing agreements. Ed's practice includes representation of domestic and international producers, distributors, sales agents, financiers, toy companies, writers, directors, and actors.

In his spare time, Ed sings and plays guitar and banjo in a 60's style professional American folk music trio.
