Professional Experience

BIRD & BIRD, WILLKIE FARR, SALANS AND O'MELVENY & MYERS

My practice was essentially a general corporate and commercial practice, focusing on companies in the audiovisual and telecommunications sector. Most of my clients were major American entertainment and audiovisual companies doing business in Europe. I had an active entertainment practice involving production and licensing agreements, trademark and copyright law, and litigation and arbitration in the entertainment and audiovisual field (clients included major US motion picture, record and video production studios, publishing, cable and telephone companies, television channels, etc.).

CompleTel Europe N.V. General Counsel

Along with the three original founders, and part of an initial team of five executives, created CompleTel Europe N.V, one of the first European facilities based providers of voice, data and internet services as an alternative to the incumbent PTT's ("CLEC") upon the liberalization and deregulation of the telecommunication market in Western Europe in January 1998. We grew the company to 800 employees and took it public on both the French and US stock market
