ROBERT M. NAU

Robert Nau received a Finance degree with honors from the Indiana University School of Business in 1972, and graduated from the University of Southern California School of Law with honors in 1977. From 1977 through 1987, he was an associate at Kadison, Pfaelzer, Woodard, Quinn & Rossi and an associate and partner at Silverberg, Rosen, Leon & Behr, focusing primarily on the litigation of entertainment disputes. In 1987, he entered solo practice. In 1990, he co-founded and was a partner in Alexander, Nau, Lawrence, Frumes & Labowitz, LLP until 2012, when he returned to a solo law practice. He has previously served as a trustee of the Los Angeles Copyright Society. Since 1987, he has been extensively involved in transactions and arbitrations relating to the development, financing, production and distribution of theatrical motion pictures and network and cable television programming in the United States and on an international basis. He has represented studios, television networks, domestic and international distribution companies, producers and production companies, directors, writers and actors. He has had considerable experience in the development and licensing of intellectual property, including home video, television commercials, trademark licensing, merchandising, computer software and the licensing and acquisition of content for exhibition over the internet and wireless technologies. He has also served as an arbitrator or expert witness in numerous entertainment related disputes.
