Mr. Stein is a member of the State Bar of California and has practiced law for more than 35 years. He is a partner in the law firm of Stein & Flugge, LLP. His practice has focused on business transactions and business litigation, with primary emphasis on issues arising in the motion picture industry. He has represented producers, distributors, writers and financiers. He has tried cases in both the state and federal courts. He is admitted to practice before all the courts of the State of California, in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and in the United States Supreme Court. He was an Instructor for the Peter Stark Program for six years, teaching a class on the principles of entertainment law to graduate students enrolled in the University of Southern California School of Cinema-TV.

Mr. Stein has been a member of the panel of arbitrators for the Independent Film and Television Alliance (fka American Film Marketing Association) Arbitration Tribunal for over 25 years. He has served as an arbitrator on many cases, including several complex matters.

Mr. Stein is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley (BA 1968) and the UCLA School of Law (JD 1976).
